PRINCETON UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY
TIMELY WARNING:

This notice is to advise you of an incident that concerns the University community.
Date: July 27, 2016
Incident: LEWDNESS

On Wednesday, July 27, 2016, at 3:09 p.m., it was reported to the Department of Public Safety that a male was walking alone west on Lawrence Drive when a dark-colored Jeep SUV pulled up next to him. The pedestrian said the driver asked him through the open window, “Can I give you a ride?” When the pedestrian looked toward the driver, he noticed that the driver’s genitals were exposed. The pedestrian said “no” to the ride and the driver continued west on Lawrence Drive.

The pedestrian described the driver as a black male in his late 30s to early 40s with a bald head who was wearing eye glasses and a light colored blue-and-pink striped collared shirt and dark pants. The man had a medium build and a gap between his two front teeth.

Department of Public Safety officers searched the area but were unable to locate the driver. Princeton Police Department was also notified of the description of the vehicle and suspect.

If you have information relevant to this incident, please contact the Department of Public Safety at 609-258-1000.

We remind all community members of the tips listed below and our general crime prevention tips listed on our website http://publicsafety.princeton.edu/safety-security/tips.

- Report suspicious behavior or activity immediately by calling the Department of Public Safety at 609-258-3333 or by using any blue light emergency phone located throughout campus.
- Never prop your door, never tape your lock and lock your windows.
- Stay alert and tuned in to your surroundings. Be aware and prepared.
- Avoid walking alone or appearing distracted by wearing headphones or talking on your cell phone.
- Trust your instincts, and if you do not feel comfortable in a place or situation, leave.
- If you must remain in a building after hours, use the buddy system when leaving.
- Be careful when using your cellular phone, in public, while walking alone.
- Call (609) 258-3134 for an escort. Any suspicious vehicles in the community should be reported immediately.

Federal Clery Act requires when a Clery reportable crime is committed and a university determines that there is an ongoing threat to the health or safety of students or employees occurring on campus, the university must follow its Timely Warning procedures. Princeton University is issuing this alert in accordance with its procedures.
